Introduction post

Planning an extended trip or leaving your seasonal home? [Business Name] offers scheduled Home Watch visits in [Service Area].

We visually check agreed, accessible areas for obvious issues, document our observations, and send a dated photo report after each visit. If we notice a concern, we contact you using your agreed instructions.

Want to see what a visit includes? View our service information and request availability at [Website], or contact [Business Phone / Email].

Short version

Away from home for a while? [Business Name] provides scheduled visual Home Watch visits and dated photo reports in [Service Area]. Explore our services and request a quote: [Website].

Helpful closing line

Home Watch is a visual check for obvious issues. It is not a technical home inspection or a guarantee against damage.
